Our Mission: To help community members who are looking for work by providing guidance, information, emotional and spiritual support.

Program Goals:

1. To provide information and referrals to resources on job search methods
2. To provide emotional and spiritual support during unemployment
3. To provide referrals to church, community, government and private organizations that can provide help during times of unemployment

GetWorks is an all volunteer program that provides services free of charge. We do ask that when you get that new job, you help someone else find a position. We serve all participants regardless of religious affiliation.

It does not matter where you live, how long you have been out of work, or what kind of work you need. All are welcome.

Program Sponsorship

GetWorks is a joint program of Media Presbyterian, St. John Chrysostom parish and Joseph's People, Ltd. Joseph's People is a private, non-profit organization that provides assistance to job search support groups in the Philadelphia area. Joseph's People has provided job search support for over 10 years to more than 4000 members.

What We Do

Our work includes activities and services such as:

- Job Search Forum meetings with expert speakers and volunteers to assist members with their job search
- Networking opportunities to share information among members
- Resource Guide that identifies local, county, state, federal and private resources available to unemployed or underemployed workers
- Resume review & critique
- Job search manual
- Assessment tools to identify areas to focus efforts
- Counsel on job search techniques, interviewing skills, networking
- Maintain on-line networking group to share information and job leads
- Referrals to individuals and organizations that may be able to help including career counselors willing to provide in-depth help at a reduced rate
- Coordinate resources within the church and community to assist people in need
